

- JOB DESCRIPTION: TRIP LEADER -

YOU will have the following qualities:

- Experience, knowledge and interest in the outdoors, especially hiking
- Strong leadership and organizational skills
- Physically fit
- Comfortable in English and Spanish
- Maturity and excellent people skills
- The ability to be away from home for extended periods

You will be required to follow our itineraries, look after our clients and ensure their safety, and work long and hard hours on the road! We mean this – please don't come to us after a couple of trips and tell us it's a hard job. We know it's a hard job – and we are looking for the best people to do it!

If having lots of privacy, a comfortable bed every night, regular lunch hours and all the things that go with a normal job are important to you, then this isn't the job for you! If, on the other hand, you are attracted by physical and mental challenges, the chance to learn and grow in an incredibly demanding but rewarding environment, being able to do heaps of exercise, earn good money and have lots of time off, then we'll see you soon! For the right person, this is the best job in the world!

ACTIVE SOUTH AMERICA operates mainly in Peru though we are running trips and have some work available in Ecuador, Costa Rica and Chile as well. The trips are mainly between seven and 14 day long. The remuneration and conditions are generous and reflect the skills and commitment we need from our staff.
